All You CanNOT Eat Fake Food on Fabric

Exhibition at the Textile Museum St.Gallen 12th April – 13th Oktober 2024

The exhibition All You CanNOT Eat is modelled on a restaurant in which nothing edible or drinkable is on offer. Based on the collection at the Textilmuseum St. Gallen, the tables are laid by various guests with exhibits that depict food.

Different epochs, social classes and tastes encounter one another, creating connections. Human consumption of food is a fleeting moment. Human beings must absorb food and drink before it goes off and decays. What is eaten and drunk is removed from the social context by the act of consumption. To soften and prevent this 'disappearance', what is edible is shown and so recorded.

By means of an exhibition and series of events, All You CanNOT Eat investigates table culture in terms of fake food. In addition, prints and imitations of consumables in fashion are examined.

Participatory project with the involvement of Alfred Leuzinger (open art museum), Association Verdre, Beni Bischof, Carlo Rampazzi, Collective Swallow, Estelle Gassmann, Infantium Victoria, Joan Sallas, Josefa Lüscher, Julie Chauhand, Kristina Bucheli, Lapidar (Jessica Celis, Salomon Elsler, Elena Völkle, Nadine Werner), Léonie Ludovicy, Madame Europe, Madame Tricot, Marta Birt, Natalia Solo-Mâtine, Pauline Lutz, Pusha Petrov, Sabina Speich, Sarena Huizinga, Sinnlich Essen (Sabrina Berger, Larissa Riesen, Lisa Rubio, Cajetana Oechslein), Sven Gex, taktik:haptik (Lisa Blaser, Nathan Werlen, Zora Weidkuhn), Tatiana Boiko, Terézia Krnáčová, Tischgesellschaft (Jana Besimo, Valerie Meta Ehrenbold, Lisa Schöpflin) and Yves Meier.
